Family Swim Supervision Guidelines

Children unable to stand in the water must remain within arm's reach of an adult caregiver in the water or wear a properly fitted, U.S. Coast Guard (USCG)-approved personal flotation device (PFD).
Children ages 8 and under must have a designated adult guardian (18+) supervising them in the pool area during family swim.
Children ages 9–12 must have a supervising adult in the pool viewing area who is easily accessible in the event of an emergency.
